Dear St. Paul,

You met Jesus while you were traveling on the road to Damascus, and this meeting changed your life, filled your heart, and inspired you to follow the Lord. Help us to open our hearts every day, and pray that we will hear the Lord Jesus in our hearts and follow him like you did. You know how difficult it can be to follow Jesus's Way, but you encourage and show that this is true happiness. Help me to live a good, holy, and faith-filled life. Amen.

Welcome to JClub™

Hello from JClub,
where the "J" stands for Jesus!

We are a club with members who are training to live as good friends of Jesus. We show our friendship with Jesus when we help the people he loves—which is everyone! When we serve others, it's not just good for the person we help. It also makes us grow in virtue and become even better friends with Jesus.

We thank God each time we think of you. And we have thousands of Daughters of St. Paul throughout the whole world, in over 50 countries, praying for all our JClub members. If you are reading this, you're a member! Join us by praying and following Jesus.

In this issue we'll explore how we can lead lives of service. Read about a miraculous staircase, the Good Samaritan, and more. Enjoy this JClub magazine. Choose several great books and DVDs. Then use them! Pray for us and know that we are always praying for you and your families.

May God bless you and your family,

Sr. Maria Kim

A Special Way to Serve God

by Pamela Love

Think of something people do to worship God. Did you say “receive Communion,” “sing a hymn,” “pray the Rosary,” or “read the Bible”? You’re right!

Did you say “build a staircase”? Probably not. Well, that answer can be right, too! Are you wondering how you can worship God by building a staircase?

In the 1800s, carpenters built a chapel (a small church) in New Mexico. They put a choir loft in the back. That’s a place for a choir to sing, high above the congregation.

Somehow, there was a mix-up. Nobody built a staircase to the choir loft! There was no way to get up there.

The nuns who were supposed to use the choir loft were worried. There wasn’t enough room to put in a staircase. Besides, they had very little money left to make any changes to the chapel.

So the nuns prayed for help, and it came. I wrote about this true story in the book Staircase for the Sisters: A Story of Prayer and Saint Joseph. Today, many years later, their very special staircase is still there. People don’t climb it anymore, but it’s serving another purpose. It reminds us of the wonderful things prayer and work can do.

Staircases (and the churches they’re in) aren’t the only things God wants people to make. Remember the story of Noah’s Ark? God told Noah to build it. Why? So Noah could save his family (and all those animals) from the Flood. In the New Testament, we learn about Dorcas, an early follower of Jesus. She made clothing to give to poor people. When Jesus sent out his disciples to preach the Gospel, he told them to make people well, too. Even a young boy helped Jesus make something—lunch for five thousand people! Of course, it was Christ who made enough food with a miracle, but the feast began with just five loaves and two fishes.

God gives us the ability to serve him in different ways. He has shown us that by serving other people, we are serving him, too.

The Good Samaritan

Luke 10:25–37

Once while Jesus was teaching, an expert in Jewish law stood up to ask him a question. “Teacher, what do I have to do to go to heaven?”

Jesus answered, “You know God’s law. What does it say?”

The lawyer said, “The law says we must love God with our whole heart, soul, strength, and mind. We must love our neighbor as ourselves.”

“That’s right,” Jesus told him. “Do that and you will have everlasting life.”

“But who is my neighbor?” the lawyer asked.

Jesus answered him by telling a story. “A man was traveling the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way, robbers stopped him. They took his cloak and money, beat him up, and left him on the side of the road, almost dead.

“A priest came walking down the road. He saw the injured man, but went on his way without helping him.

“Next, another man who kept the law of Moses came by. He saw the man but kept going too.

“Finally, a man from Samaria came along. He saw the poor man lying on the roadside and felt sorry for him. He went over and poured oil and wine into the man’s wounds to help them get better. He lifted the man onto his donkey and brought him to the nearest inn. He got a room and took care of him. The next day, he gave the innkeeper some money and asked him to take care of the injured man. If the innkeeper would need to spend more money to help the man, the Samaritan promised to pay him on his way back.

“Which of these three men acted as a neighbor to the man who was attacked by robbers?” Jesus asked.

The lawyer didn’t want to say that the Samaritan was the good neighbor. At that time, most Jews had nothing to do with Samaritans. But he had to give Jesus an answer. And so he said, “The neighbor was the person who treated him with kindness.”

Jesus nodded and said, “Then that is what you must do, too.”
