

Ultimate Author Day 2017 Visiting Authors

Father Wilfred Emeh

Our Lady of Sorrows Church's very own Father Wilfred has a new book and will join us at UAD to share it. Born in Cameroon, Fr. Wilfred served in a rural parish where he often walked several miles to bring the Gospel to village communities.

Father's book explores the fallen standard of traditional Christian family values as a result of the rise and the overuse of the new media. He narrates his ups and downs in his attempt to acclimatize in his new world.

WILFRED EMEH

Callie Chapman

Callie Chapman was 6-years-old when she wrote Glitter the Unicorn. The story is about a unicorn named Glitter and her best friend Ellie who go on a magical adventure to Cotton Candy Land.

Callie donates all of the profits from her book sales to Children's Hospital of Alabama. Her first donation was in the amount of $3,500. She will be sharing her stories with us at UAD.

Rita Collins

Rita is a Birmingham native with three grown kids who all attended OLS School. She is an educator, children's book author, and publisher. Rita will be joining us at UAD and will feature her series of Eensy Weensy Books. Each story follows an animal or plant from egg, infant or seed, and children will learn that "all creatures great and small begin EENSY WEENSY."
